Reporting Requirements for your 2020 State of Indiana Return: Individuals

Any interest earned from Indiana municipal bonds and U.S. territories (such as Puerto Rico, Guam, Virgin Islands, American Samoa, or Northern Mariana) are not taxable for purposes of the Adjusted Gross Income Tax Act. Interest from municipal bonds from another state or political subdivision is generally taxed accordingly when you purchased shares of the mutual fund that earned this out-of-state interest, as follows:

- For mutual fund shares acquired before January 1, 2012 (pre-2012 shares), this interest is 100% exempt from Indiana state income tax.
- For mutual fund shares acquired on or after January 1, 2012 (post-2011 shares), this interest is subject to Indiana state income tax.

To determine the amount of exempt-interest dividends that are not exempt from Indiana state income tax, multiply the amount of exempt-interest dividends shown on Box 11 on Form 1099-DIV by the percentage listed for the corresponding fund in the table below. Next, multiply the result by the percentage of fund shares that you acquired on or after January 1, 2012. This is the amount that is not exempt from Indiana state income tax. The following example is based on a $10,000 exempt-interest dividend distribution from the fund.

Example:

If the Indiana shareholder held 2,000 shares of a Thornburg Short Duration Municipal Fund on 12/31/2011 and acquired (either by purchase or reinvestment) 1,000 additional shares after 12/31/2011, then 66.66% (2,000/3,000 shares) of the out of state interest is exempt and 33.33% (1,000/3,000 shares) is taxable.

$$$10,000 \text{ exempt-interest dividends} \times 98.49\% = $9,849; $9,849 \times 33.33\% = $3,283 \text{ taxable portion}$$

PERCENTAGE OF FEDERALLY EXEMPT-INTEREST DIVIDENDS ATTRIBUTABLE TO STATES OTHER THAN INDIANA/U.S. TERRITORIES
Thornburg Intermediate Municipal Fund	95.48%
Thornburg Limited Term Municipal Fund	97.69%
Thornburg Short Duration Municipal Fund <sup>3</sup>	98.49%
Thornburg Strategic Municipal Fund	96.34%

2020 Income from U.S. Government Obligations

Dividends derived from interest on U.S. government securities may be exempt from state and local taxes. The table indicates the percentage of government ordinary income received by the funds and the source from which it was derived. Your dividends from the fund must be reported on your 2020 federal income tax return. Some states and/or localities do not require you to pay state or local income tax on income derived from certain federal agency bonds. If a fund is not listed below, it did not receive income from U.S. government obligations.
